Coming Events

General Meeting February - April 13, 2007

Our General Meeting will be held at the United Church of Hanapepe and our speaker will be Scott Mitamura. His topic will be cattleyas -- his favorite subject. We will ask Scott to be our Orchid Doctor and to do Orchids 101 so if you need help, be there at 6:00 p.m. He will also be bringing door prize plants.

If you haven't done so, please renew your membership

President's Message

By now everyone knows we had the annual orchid show at the Hanapepe UCC church hall and this year in conjunction with the Hanapepe Alliance. Lots of activity going on. Lots of folks, and lots of our members pitching in make the show a good fundraiser. We've added seven new members to the club. Our four vendors sold a good amount of plants, Gwen Teragawa's kitchen staff sold out both days and the crafts table reported brisk sales.

Many congratulations for the hard work of all concerned in all aspects of the show. Keep in mind the Farm Fair in late August. And keep in mind that we have elections of officers in December. If you are interested please take a copy of the bylaws at the library table at any general meeting. Get involved in your club. It is both fun and interesting. I will not re-run for president for 2008-2009 due to other commitments. And you may be talented in any of the other jobs available or on one of the committees. I would like to see as many of you as possible involved in some aspect of the club. We need you!

I heard from Kris Yamauchi-Taniguchi of Hanamaulu who has about 40 orchid plants. She has been having trouble handling them since her mother passed away and she wants to keep them alive. If any of you can help in April, please call her at 651-1048.

Bob King, President

From your editor: Because of space limitations, the write up on the Doug DeMoss lecture on vanilla orchids will be included in the next newsletter. Ada

Spring Fantasy Show “Kaua’i Orchids and Art” - 2007

We of the Garden Island Orchid Society and the Members of the Hanapepe Economic Alliance can give ourselves a big pat on the back. At least that was what we heard from our visitors. From all accounts our orchid enthusiasts said it was one of the best shows they had seen. They liked the combination of Orchids and Art and the sheer variety of our orchids. Of course there were many helping hands, too many to list here but we hope to recognize all who participated in creating the show at a later date. For now enjoy the photos and congratulations to the winners and all entrants for a job well done. Spring Fantasy 2007 as expressed in photos.

The artsy fountain was a big success.

Our trellis this year was laden with hanging orchids.

Our pretty flower Marlene Domingcil at the Membership table.

Art surrounded by orchids was a pretty touch.

Kaua'i Orchid & Art Festival – 2007 Art Competition Awards

The first annual Kaua'i Orchid & Art Festival Art Competition attracted sixty-fives entries all featuring the theme "orchid fantasy". Judges included: Linus and Jane Chao from Hilo, Hawaii and Waihang Lai from Kauai.

Waihang Lai, a member of the American Watercolor Society who taught art at Kauai Community College for thirty years, presented the awards to the first annual Kauai Orchid & Art Festival art competition winners Saturday March 31, 4:00 p.m. at the outdoor concert held at the Hawaiian Congregational Church center stage.

1. Eileen Kechloian (Hidden Orchid) – Banana Patch Studio award [$100]
2. Georgia Hoopes (Accidental Orchid) – Hanapepe Artworks award (Saim Caglayan) [$100]
3. Brandei Santos /(White Orchid)/– Hanapepe Design Studio award (Jim & Judy Page) [$50]
4. Angela Headley (In My Garden) – Hanapepe Cafe – luncheon gift certificate (H. Locano) value [$50]
5. Shanelle Santos (Midnight Spider) – Arius Hopman Gallery award [$ 50]
6. Antonio Arellanes (Inter-dimensional Light Orchid) – Island Art Gallery award (Angela & Kim Headley) [$ 50]
7. Bruna Stude (Untitled black & white photo) – Pearl Graphic Design Award [$50]
8. Michelle Dick (Orchid Mana)– Ultralight gift certificate – (J. Combs) Value [$130]
9. Donna Carnick (Orchid II) – Winona Sears Memorial Award [$50]
10. Arius Hopman (White Phalenopsissm) – People's Choice Award [$100])

Arius Hopman receives the People's Choice award for his digital photograph "White Phalenopsissm" from Joanna Carolan, treasurer of the Hanapepe Economic Alliance. The awards ceremony for the 2007 Kaua'i Orchid and Art Festival was held in Hanapepe Saturday, March 31.

Several plein air painters paint images of downtown Hanapepe, and, of course, orchids.

This vanilla creme brulee was just one of the delicious recipe's offered by Helen Locano's workshop at Hanapepe Cafe during the Kauai Orchid & Art Festival.
